

Graduate Research Network (GRN) ONLINE

As part of Computers and Writing Online, the Graduate Research Network (GRN) will be hosting several events. We hope that you will participate in these synchronous and asynchronous offerings. If you can't come to the face-to-face conference, you'll find excellent dialogue here; otherwise, use this opportunity to prepare for that magical trip to Lubbock, Texas and the Computers and Writing Conference.

ASYNCHRONOUS GRN:

The online GRN team invites you to submit short (500-3000 word) descriptions of research, which will be commented on by a team of experienced researchers throughout the online conference (February 6-28). These posts will go into the C&W.org site: <http://computersandwriting.org>

SYNCHRONOUS SESSIONS (to be held in the Texas Tech English MOO at <http://moo.engl.ttu.edu:7000/>):

Tuesday, February 14th at 6:00 pm (CST):

Professionalization: Preparing for the job, Getting the job, Keeping the job

In this Valentine's day special, Janice Walker, Cheryl Ball, and Kristin Arola of MTU discuss the "do's" and "don'ts" of professional development.

Thursday, February 23rd at 6:00 pm (CST):

Research Methods in Computers and Writing

Becky Rickly and Angela Eaton discuss the promises and perils of conducting research in the academy and the workplace.

See the rest of the online conference at

<http://english.ttu.edu/cw/CWO2006/schedule.html>